

The Consortium for Families and Health Research (C-FAHR) presents

The Good and Bad Sides of Close Relationships in Family Health

Symposium and Brown Bag Lunch

Wednesday, Oct 21, 2015 | 12:00 PM-1:30 PM

Humanities Dean's Lounge LNCO 2110

255 Central Campus Drive

Guest Speakers

Marissa L. Diener, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Family and Consumer Studies, University of Utah

The Quality of Family Relationships: Associations with Children's Socioemotional Well-Being

Cynthia A. Berg, Ph.D., Professor, Psychology Department and Dean, College of Social & Behavioral Science

Positive and Negative Forms of Parental Involvement in Managing Diabetes During Adolescence and Emerging Adulthood

Heather E. Canary, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Communication, University of Utah

"I'm a wimp, you know, that runs in our family": Family Health Norms and Experiences in the Context of Cancer Risk

Timothy W. Smith, Ph.D., Distinguished Professor, Psychology Department, University of Utah

For Better, For Worse: Health Implications of Positive and Negative Aspects of Marital Quality

Consortium for Families and Health Research

For more information and to RSVP, please email events@csbs.utah.edu.